

Dean Mills Biography

Dean Mills is a gospel singer originally from rural Michigan. He began singing in his local church at the age of 15. Dean was music major in college and eventually moved to California to pursue a musical career. Since then, Dean has shared the stage with various artists such as:

- Smokey Robinson
- Rosie Grier
- Najee
- The Rippingtons
- Chareless McPherson
- L.A. Mass Choir
- Morris Chapman
- James Cleveland
- Daryl Coley
- Tina Watson
- Fatburger
- Leon Patillo
- Hollis Gentry
- Marilyn McCoo,
- Billy Davis Jr.

Dean's voice combines jazz and rhythm and blues with gospel creating a unique singing style. He also plays tenor, alto and soprano saxophone. Dean's desire for his ministry is to be an effective tool to reach those who normally do not listen to Gospel music.

Dean resides in Southern California